RESUME PARLEY TODAY

New York, June 14.-Rejection by

New York, June 14.—Rejection by anthracite operators of the miners' union peace offer literally before it has been officially tendered may defeat hope of an early settlement of the suspension in the hard-coal fields and result in a vote to turn the suspension into a full-fiedged strike.

The conference committee of operators and union leaders that has been conducting negotiations off and on here ators and union leaders that has been conducting negotiations off and on here since March 15 will meet again today for what is conceded to be the most important session in the whole series. In the opinion of those in touch with sentiment among the miners, the conference may wind up withing few hours if the operators persist in the attitude indicated yesterday by the statement of Samuel D. Warriner, of Philadelphia, their spokesman, who declared that unless the miners accept the wage cut proposed by the operators, the only al-

The miners are ready to meet the operators of the Central Competitive field on a substantial tonnage basis with a view is settling the nation-wide strike, according to William Green, secretary of the United Mine Workers of America.

It was explained, however, that would be necessary for operators joining in the conference to control enough coal production to warrant making any wage agreement they might reach with the miners a basis for pay throughout the Central Competitive field, which is the Central Competitive field, which is the basing scale for all soft coal field, operating union mines.

Mr. Green said yesterday he had knowledge of a movement among ortain coal operators of the Central Competitive field to bring operators and miners together in conference.
